

Our Mission

About Us

Our Crisis Respite Center mission is to restore hope, resilience, and recovery for individuals we serve.

The good news is that treatment works and recovery from a mental illness is possible.

Help is available!

Adult Mental Health Crisis Respite Facility

Respite Center

Crisis Respite Services

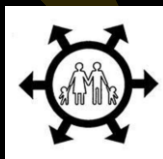

Adult Mental Health Crisis Respite Facility

“Working Together to Help Others Help Themselves”

What We're Here For

The MHMRCV – Crisis Respite services are near you – Flexible 24/7 Availability. Services are provided for individuals that may need a break from their home environment.

CRISIS RESPITE CENTER
244 N Magdalen Building #240
San Angelo, TX 76903
Phone: 325-658-3961

The Center Includes

The Crisis Respite Center is a 12-bed facility that offers short term respite services for individuals who need assistance in stabilizing their behavioral health condition.

Housing is open to 6 male and female beds, includes:

- Day Rooms
- Medication Monitoring
- Kitchen Amenities
- Showers
- Washers/Dryers

The Crisis Respite Center offer activities such as:

- 24-hour peer support
- Self-advocacy education
- Self-help training
- Social support groups
- Life-Skills Activities

Respite Facility

Eligibility Criteria

- Must be experiencing a mental health crisis
- No intent for imminent danger to self or others
- Voluntary services, therefore, active participation is required
- Trauma Informed Services

MHMRCV Respite Services

A crisis center provides short-term crisis services in a home-like environment. A safe environment for individuals 24 hours/7 days a week.

The Respite Center offers short term (up to 10 days) residential care and intervention for individuals.

Resources for Clients

- 1 Housing Referrals
- 2 Job Applications
- 3 Counseling and Group Referrals
- 4 San Angelo Clubhouse Referral

Contact Us

Sylvia Arambula, QMHP-CS
Respite Supervisor

Phone: (325) 658-3961

Phone: (325) 658-7750 Ext. 410

800 Crisis: (800) 375-8965